

I have been notified that the FCC wants to weaken Indiana's telephone solicitation law and allow banks to call their customers with special offers of new services for sale. This is exactly the kind of thing that I did not want to be bothered with in the first place. Please do NOT weaken the Indiana law. Thank you.